

Year 5 Curriculum Map Summer 1 Off With Her Head!

Maths

- ❖ Calculating with whole numbers and decimals
- ❖ Converting units of measure

English

- ❖ Writing a narrative based on 'Oktapodi' animation
- ❖ Using the following techniques within a narrative: 'showing not telling' character emotions, creating tension and suspense, pathetic fallacy and inner monologues
- ❖ Editing and improving
- ❖ Writing and producing nature documentaries in the style of David Attenborough
- ❖ Use of the full range of punctuation
- ❖ Parenthesis, relative clauses and formal writing techniques including the passive voice and formal/technical vocabulary

Art

- ❖ Sketching the missing half of Tudor portraits
- ❖ Using the pouncing technique to create realistic Tudor portraits of each other
- ❖ Making Rumala covers

Music

- ❖ Identifying Tudor music and the instruments used
- ❖ Recognising standard musical notation and reading the musical stave
- ❖ Composing, writing and performing own Tudor fanfares

History

- ❖ Tudor era timeline
- ❖ The Battle of Bosworth and significance of the Tudor rose
- ❖ Tudor monarchs and relations
- ❖ Henry VIII and his wives – why did he keep marrying?

Science

- ❖ Life cycles of different mammals
- ❖ Jane Goodall
- ❖ Metamorphosis
- ❖ Creating a nature documentary in the style of David Attenborough to showcase what has been learnt

Re: What does it mean to be a Sikh?

- ❖ Key teachings and beliefs including the 5 K's
- ❖ The Guru Granth Sahib and the Gurdwara
- ❖ Comparing Sikhism with Christianity

French

- ❖ Ask and say where you are going on holiday and express opinions
- ❖ Talk about what you are going to do and plans on holiday

PE

- ❖ Tudor dancing
- ❖ Basketball
- ❖ Athletics

PSHE: Healthy Me

- ❖ Emergency aid
- ❖ Having a healthy relationship with food