Body

Sporting excellence

Spirit

Spiritual excellence

Staff work well together...they understand your motto for the school, 'Mind, Body and Spirit'. This drive to respond fully to the academic, social, spiritual and emotional needs of your pupils is reflected in all aspects of the school's work.

OFSTED 2019

The school successfully nurtures the whole child which is evidenced in the levels of confidence pupils show. Teachers model and teach key values, such as tolerance, respect and kindness. OFSTED 2019

The school is an inclusive school where pupils feel valued. Pupils flourish both socially and academically and are a credit to the school. Pupils are friendly, confident and articulate. They behave extremely sensibly throughout the school day

A low-angle shot of a high ropes course against a clear blue sky. Several children are seen on different levels of the course, which consists of horizontal wooden beams suspended by ropes. The children are silhouetted against the bright sky. The text "What will your children love about St Mary's?" is overlaid in a large, bold, yellow font across the center of the image.

What will your children
love about St Mary's?

St Mary's Criteria

Criteria 1 – looked after

Criteria 2 - Siblings

Criteria 3 – Children of staff

Criteria 4 - Exceptional medical/social

Criteria 5 - Area 1

Criteria 6 – Area 2

Criteria 7 – All other areas allocated on home-distance

Placement for choice :

1st – is the best chance of being offered a place even if outside area 1 . It does not disadvantage you for being offered your 2nd choice if we are full (especially if your 2nd choice is closer)
